Hedgehog News in Burton Fleming

There have been a few adult sightings around the village this month and there certainly has plenty of food eaten at the feeding stations. Has anyone seen any babies yet?. (Please let Kate or myself know if you see any hedgehogs around the village so we can monitor their progress and whereabouts.)

SAD NEWS:

We have unfortunately had some adult hedgehog fatalities on the roads in Burton Fleming, please can you ask all drivers to be aware of hedgehogs and wildlife life crossing.

Thanking you in advance to Please SLOW DOWN.

Hedgehog favourite Food

- Dried kitten biscuits- No fish flavour please (Kitten is easier for hoglets)
- Spikes semi moist hedgehog food
- Wet cat food in jelly - No fish flavour please
- Dried mealworms in very small amounts
- LOTS of water

A 13cm square gap in the bottom of your fence or wall will help hedgehogs to travel around, most will do a mile a night.

And if you see any hedgehogs out during the day, it usually means they are in distress so please seek advise from either Kate or myself within the village. We are helping Jo Pickering from Langtoft who rescues hedgehogs and rehabilitates them ready for release.

Thanking you all for supporting Burton Fleming Hedgehogs

Dear Friends,

Well, what did you think of the Royal Wedding? Did you even watch it? I did, I thoroughly enjoyed the music, the pageantry, the clothes etc. I thought Meghan looked delightful and Harry was the besotted groom. We get a lot of things wrong in this country but we do royal weddings and pageantry very, very well. What did you think of the Presiding Bishop and Primate of the Episcopal Church in America, the Most Reverend Michael Curry? For me, his rousing address on 'The Power of Love' was brilliant, even though it might have been somewhat long, but then that is the way of Afro/American preachers.

If you can download the speech, please try to do so, because when you've read it, you will realise why I really need not say very much more.

Everything that matters to God, everything the Bible is trying to tell us is down to 'Love the Lord your God and love your neighbour'.

If only the world leaders would listen to that, if only everyone would listen to that, if only we did love God and our neighbour, there would be no need for Summit Talks, sanctions, threats of war, the killing of millions of innocent people, the displacement of millions..... I could go on, I get carried away sometimes particularly at why the world's leaders don't get it....why our government doesn't get it.

Ah well, all I can do in my little corner of this world is to have faith and to pray for a better world to come.

with love & blessings,
Revd Barbara

The May Coffee Morning raised a fabulous £178.00. It was lovely to have a mini bus turn up from Boroughbridge who were very appreciative of our teas/coffees etc. We look forward to receiving any bric a brac and books. We are continually rolling over stock, which when unsold, we take to various charity shops in the area. We also have a terrific produce stall. The monies raised go into the Village Hall Improvement Fund.

We would love to hear from anyone willing to volunteer to help on the coffee mornings. Alternate months from 9.45-11.45am
