Next Parish Council Meeting

The next Parish Council meeting is to be held on 09 March 2021 via Zoom.

Dear Friends,
I bet you're as fed up as I am at the moment.... I can't see my girls and our grandchildren.... I know we can Zoom and Facetime and all the other technological things .....but it's not the same...no kisses and cuddles and if you're a tactile person like me, it's doubly hard.

Still I convince myself that by staying home with David, who is clinically very vulnerable, I am doing 'my bit' to keep him, myself & others as safe as I possibly can. Having said all that, "well done", to all those who are doing the same because I know I'm not the only one & I'm not being patronising when I say "well done", but I mean it. If everyone in the country did the same, then we would be a lot further on, wouldn't we.

I am always drawn to the words of Jesus when he gave us his two great commands - "Love God and Love your neighbour". I try to keep to both of these, especially during these difficult times. Although I can't take services at the moment, I spend time with God during my prayer-time and I try to help folks where I can. I am sure we all do our best and we must continue to do so and encourage others to do the same if we are to control this terrible virus.
So keep up the good work, take care and above all, stay safe.

Love & blessings,
Revd Barbara
