Burton Fleming Hedgehog News

It's BREEDING and BABY SEASON! Summer is a key breeding period for hedgehogs, with some second litters born late in the summer. Please remember to:

- Check for hogs and hog nests prior to gardening, especially when using strimmers and grass cutters.
- Provide an exit route out of ponds and pools as hogs like to swim.
- Cover holes and drains to prevent hogs from falling in.

If you see any hedgehogs out during the day, it usually means they are in distress, however it could be a nursing mother seeking food or nest materials so please seek advice from either myself Ali (07734053699) or Jo Pickering (East Yorkshire Hedgehog Rescue) from Langtoft (07717552624) who rescues hedgehogs and rehabilitates them ready for release.

Due to extreme weather conditions please could you ensure when feeding hedgehogs you supply LOTS OF WATER!

Hedgehog favourite Food

- Dried kitten biscuits- No fish flavour please (Kitten is easier for hoglets)
- Spikes semi moist hedgehog food
- Wet cat food in jelly - No fish flavour please
- Dried mealworms in very small amounts
- LOTS OF WATER!

Thanking you all for supporting Burton Fleming Hedgehogs.

attend Wold Newton school. They bring in some of their work and tell us about it, we sing and pray. Do join us if you can. It's all looking good!

Three reasons to be apprehensive:

1. There are record temperatures being recorded across the world. Then I heard this at a wedding rehearsal - "Can you have a word with the big guy upstairs so that it doesn't rain on the Big Day?" To which my response was inevitably something like, "well, God's in a tough spot here, because while you're praying for it to not rain, the farmers and gardeners might be praying that it will rain!"
2. There is still war in The Ukraine, Gaza and Israel, Iran and other troubles which are not prominent in the news.
3. The cost-of-living crisis means that many families will be looking at the summer holidays with trepidation - how to feed the kids this summer-time and keep them entertained. Mortgage rates (and rents too) are going up (may be some of us with some modest savings will benefit from increases in savings rates).

However, you choose your own three highs and lows, I am sure your neighbour or friends will have a different set or a different way in interpreting them - even if they are the same three things. And we do that regularly with the Bible too. But isn't that often the way? Life carries with it complexities, and we find ourselves wandering through the thick of it. As we go about our daily lives we never know what the people around us are going through. We can be sure that, however our days are going, the people around us will be experiencing a range of different emotions: joy, delight, worry, fear, grief, anger. The whole gamut of human experience plays itself out on our villages and in our community every day of the year. In the midst of the rich tapestry of life and experience it wouldn't do us harm to be kind. Nothing more radical than that. To be prepared to ask, "are you okay?" To be a sign to others that they are not alone. Throughout it all, the good and the bad, one thing we can take comfort in, is that God journeys with us through it all. God is never on holiday. That's not to say that we should just stop moaning and get on with things, but that as we do go about our lives, we can know that we're not alone. Enjoy the coming Summer - as we journey through these coming summer months, whatever the weather or opportunities or hardships - be blessed, and as you are blessed, seek to be a blessing to others too and..... don't forget the suncream!!!

With love,
Rev'd Barbara

A FEW WORDS FROM ME Double as this is for two months!!!!

Dear Friends,

I've had that song 'Don't worry, be happy' in my mind recently and I decided to think of three reasons to be happy (I know there are many more & you might not agree with mine) anyway here goes:

1. The sun is shining but rain is on the horizon that should dispel the mugginess and the farmers will be happy.
2. For those of you into your sport - armchair or by spectating, we are still (at time of writing) in with a chance with the cricket (both Men's and Women's), Wimbledon is just around the corner and football will be starting soon! If you are not into Sport, there are plenty of music festivals to go to - and life is hotting up in Eastenders!
3. School holidays are soon to begin. (be happy, tho' it's hard work and children grow up so quickly). Our End of Year Assembly at All Saints, Wold Newton on Tuesday 15th July at 9.30am is for all parents, grandparents, carers, some Burton Fleming children
